

WHY Gravis Law

FOR YOUR FIRM'S BIGGEST OPPORTUNITY YET?

Your Firm is Your Legacy. A Gravis Acquisition Ensures It's in the Right Hands.

You've built a practice your clients rely on and your team calls home. When it's time to think about what comes next, we make sure everything you've built isn't lost.

A Deal Structured Around Your Unique Circumstances.

Every firm is different, and neither are our acquisitions. We build the transition around your timeline, your team, your practice areas, and your clients – not the other way around.

Your Attorneys Get to Focus on What They Do Best: Practice Law.

From day one, Gravis absorbs billing, compliance, HR, and operations. Your clients get more resources behind them. Your team gets more stability. And you get a clear path forward.

77%

OF SMALL LAW FIRMS SPEND TOO MUCH TIME ON NON-BILLABLE TASKS

At Gravis, your attorneys will be practicing law and servicing their clients, not chasing down collections or putting out administrative fires.

"I could not be happier with the decision to transition my small law firm to Gravis, which has allowed me to cater to my long-time clients. With Gravis's footprint, I have expanded my client base significantly. I have the peace of mind knowing that I am supported by Gravis's extensive network of employees and colleagues, and knowing that my clients are well taken care of."

- John W. O'Leary | Principal & Senior Attorney | Richland, WA

“Before transitioning my practice, I had been in a solo and small firm practice for over 20 years. When Gravis offered me the efficiencies, processes, and centralized office systems that would allow me to focus my time on actually practicing law and meeting my clients’ needs, the choice was clear.”
